Please note:

There are 351 cities and towns in Massachusetts; please note that not all information for all municipalities is available, so please check with a city or town if you need to know if a specific municipality has a form of BDL. Please also note that municipalities can change their bylaws, so please contact for updated information. Please email any corrections to advocacy@mspca.org. For more information: www.mspca.org/bsl

 Boston, Lynn, Worcester, Lowell all define pit bull as: pit bull - includes, but is not limited to, any dog that is an American Pit Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, Staffordshire Bull Terrier, or any dog of mixed breed displaying the majority of physical traits of any one or more of the above breeds, or any dog exhibiting those distinguishing characteristics which substantially conform to the standards established by the American Kennel Club or United Kennel Club for any of the above breeds, such characteristics being identifiable even if there are technical deficiencies in any particular dog's conformance thereto; or any dog identifiable by a licensed veterinarian, animal control officer, or any other knowledgeable person whose identification is deemed credible by the (name of city) Police Department or the animal control officer as having American Pit Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, and/or Staffordshire Bull Terrier as any element of its breeding, or any dog registered or licensed as a pit bull. Specifically excepted from this definition is any dog with proof by American Kennel Club or United Kennel Club papers or by a written certification or written notice from a veterinarian licensed in the commonwealth of Massachusetts that the dog does not contain in its lineage any American Pit Bull Terrier, American Staffordshire Terrier, or Staffordshire Bull Terrier.*
